ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrive Madrid

A warm welcome to your tour. On arrival in Madrid, our representative will greet you at airport. After customs and immigration, transfer comfortably to your hotel (check-in after 1400 hours). Your sightseeing only the next day so that you can relax after your long flight and get over your jetlag. Overnight in Madrid. Dinner at an Indian restaurant.

Day 2: Madrid

Today, we take you on a guided city tour of Madrid. See the Royal Palace, Puerta del Sol, Cibeles Squares and Plaza Espana. Drive through the main streets and see the Neptune Fountain, Alcala Street and Gran Via - most popular commercial street for a real taste of Spain. Next, visit the Las Ventas Bull Ring, where we will guide you around the key parts of the bullring, from the main entrance, to the tendidos, the callejon, putting into context the three protagonists of this magnificent spectacle: the audience, the bullfighter and the bull. Continue for an excursion to Toledo, a cultural melting pot renowned for its harmonious combination of three cultures of Christian, Muslim and Jewish. Also, visit a Sword factory. Steel from Toledo has been one of the most prestigious in the world because of its flexibility. After dinner, return to your hotel. Overnight in Madrid. Breakfast at the hotel and dinner at an Indian restaurant.

Day 3: Madrid – Lisbon

Today, proceed to Lisbon, the place which enchants travellers with its white bleached limestone buildings, intimate alleyways, and an easy going charm that makes it a popular year round destination. En route, visit the Sanctuary of Fatima, one of the most important catholic shrines in the world dedicated to the Virgin Mary. Continue your drive to Lisbon. On arrival, check-in to your hotel. Overnight in Lisbon.

Breakfast at the hotel and dinner at an Indian restaurant.

Day 4: Lisbon

Today, enjoy a guided city tour of Lisbon. See the charming Alfama Quarter, the Tagus River, Belem Tower, and the Monument of the Discoveries. Visit Vasco da Gama's discovery of a sea route to India that inspired the glorious Monastery of St. Jerome, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Then, proceed on an orientation tour of Sintra, the capital of 19th-century Romanticism and one of the most picturesque destinations in Portugal. Cruise the Portuguese coast to Estoril, Cascais Bay, and rocky chasm of Hell's Mouth (Boca do Inferno). Admire fantastic Atlantic coast and Portuguese countryside views throughout the tour. After dinner, return to your hotel. Overnight in Lisbon.

Breakfast at the hotel and dinner at an Indian restaurant.

Day 5: Lisbon - Seville

Today, your drive takes you to Seville, the capital of Andalusia. According to legend, Sevilla was founded by Hercules and its origins are linked with the Tartessian civilization. Then, proceed on a guided city tour of this gracious and charming Spain's third largest city. See the Tower of Gold, the tranquil and extensive Maria Luisa Park, the quaint Santa Cruz Quarter, and finally view the huge cathedral (one of the world's largest) with its Giralda Tower (a former minaret). While Seville is famous for its history, at the same time the old city center is bustling with modern life: filled with shops, tapas bars and restaurants, the city offers plenty of options for visitors. Spend some leisure time to savour the atmosphere. Later, transfer to your hotel and check-in. Overnight in Seville. Breakfast at the hotel and dinner at an Indian restaurant.

Day 6: Seville - Granada

Today, proceed to Granada.

En route, visit the former Great Mosque (now a cathedral) in Cordoba. When arriving in Cordoba, pass along the wonderful gardens of the Alcazar of the Christian Kings, where we will also see the mosaics that decorate the rooms (alternate monument to be visited on Mondays). Then, spend some leisure time at Plaza de la Corredera, this grand 17th-century square has an elaborate history as a site of public spectacles, including bullfights and Inquisition burnings. Nowadays it's ringed by balconied apartments and is home to an assortment of popular, though culinarily run-of-the-mill, cafes and restaurants. Continue your drive to Granada and after dinner, check-in to your hotel. Overnight in Granada. Breakfast at hotel and dinner at an Indian restaurant.

Day 7: Granada - Valencia

Today, grab the sight of the Alhambra and Generalife Garden. Listed under the World Heritage Sites of UNESCO, Alhambra is indisputably the most well-known monument of the city and one of the most visited in Spain. The last Moorish stronghold in Europe, the Alhambra reflects the splendour of Moorish civilization in Andalusia and offers the visitor splendid ornamental architecture, spectacular and lush gardens, cascading and dripping water features and breathtaking views of the city. It has a defensive area, the Alcazaba, the Nasrid Palaces, named after the Dynasty of the Kingdom of Granada, and the Gardens of the Generalife. It is positioned on a hill situated at the rear of the complex overlooking the Alhambra palace. Within you'll find beds of colourful flowers, more exquisite architecture, leaping fountains and cool shade. Then, proceed to Valencia which is one of the oldest cities in Spain, founded in the Roman period under the name "Valentia Edetanorum" on the site of a former Iberian town, by the river Turia in the province of Edetania. On arrival, check-in to your hotel. Overnight in Valencia. Breakfast at hotel and dinner at an Indian restaurant.

Day 8: Valencia – Barcelona

Today, enjoy a guided city tour of Valencia. Here, you can find an impressive balance between modern and classical architecture. The buildings like the City of Arts and Sciences, the Cathedral of Valencia and the Central Market which are not to be missed. Then, spend some leisure time at Plaza del Ayuntamiento, home to some of the most representative administrative buildings in Valencia. Plaza del Ayuntamiento features an outstanding mix of Spanish architectural styles. Later, proceed to Barcelona, the cosmopolitan capital of Spain's Catalonia region, is defined by quirky art and architecture, imaginative food and vibrant street life. On arrival, check-in to your hotel. Overnight in Barcelona. Breakfast at hotel and dinner at an Indian restaurant.

Day 9: Barcelona

Today, on a guided city tour, see the ancient Gothic Quarter with its magnificent cathedral. Stop to admire the exterior of Gaudi's masterwork, the Basilica of the Sacred Family (Sagrada Familia). Continue to Montjuich Hill (site of the Olympic Stadium), to enjoy a spectacular view of Barcelona and its port area. Delve into the history of Barcelona's revered football club on a 90-minute self-guided tour of the impressive Camp Nou Stadium and its interesting museum. Then, spend some leisure time at La Rambla, the most famous street in Barcelona and one of the most vital places of the Catalan capital. Without a doubt, it is one of the most essential attractions to visit in Barcelona. Later, take a bite out of Barcelona's legendary nightlife. Experience an exhilarating Flamenco Show performance. Cheer on a talented troupe of flamenco dancers as a unique display of agility, passion and energy is demonstrated on stage. After dinner, return to your hotel. Overnight in Barcelona. Breakfast at hotel and dinner at an Indian restaurant.
